

LOCKDOWN LOWDOWN

15 SEPTEMBER 2021

Scott made cheese, ham and sweet chilli scrolls. Wow!

Anne has been keeping busy keeping fit on the exercycle!

Chris had a go at the Portrait challenge! Great costume!

Isobel enjoyed a walk in Cornwall park to see the Spring lambs.

Kia Ora Whanau. Tena koutou e hoa (Hello friends)

We hope you are all coping okay with another week in Lockdown Level 4 and are not going too stir crazy! It's hard to keep our spirits up sometimes but we hope that our daily interactions with you help break up the boredom. We are all getting a bit fed up with lockdown! We highly recommend watching Hannah's latest video - Feel good ideas - which shows you lots of ways to perk yourself up and cope with challenging emotions in a positive way. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GxPICxRUipg>

This week we have three zoom shout out awards! Prize for the happiest zoomers of the week goes to - Bobbie and Lynne! Most exuberant zoomer prize goes to Archie! Most comfortable while interacting with the World on zoom prize goes to Kezia!

Our Bravery award this week goes out to Rebecca who has been going through a tough time in hospital. Thankfully, she is now at home and is recovering well. No more flirting with the Doctors! We send all our love and aroha to you.

Well done to all of you who have sent into your Maori Language videos! Please continue to email those in as we will put together that video next week. Film yourself saying a Maori word and what it means so we can all learn some more Te Reo Maori together!

The zoomers have been practising learning the Six60 song - Kia Mau Ki Tō Ūkaipō / Don't Forget Your Roots - in Maori. We are all making an effort to learn this so we can all sing it together when we all return to Ranfurly. You can learn the lyrics here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DFHaEuep5eI>

We want to hear from you, what is your favourite Ranfurly youtube video? Which videos do you like the best and what would you like to see more of? Are there any things you would like us to create for you on youtube? A 5 hour sing-along with Clive?

Happy Birthday to Rudon, Mike and Manori who have birthdays this week!

Take care of yourselves and your bubble buddies,

From the Activity Centre Crew :-)
